

National Systems Gold Medal

The National Systems Gold Medal is the highest award instituted by Systems Society of India and presented to an eminent person who has made significant contribution to any branch of Systems Science & Engineering.

The nomination can be submitted to the Secretary, Systems Society of India with a CV of the nominee. The nomination is presented to a committee which makes recommendation to the executive committee of SSI. The award is generally given during the National Systems Conference.